

Seasonal change: Year 1 Knowledge Mat

Exciting Books

Subject Specific Vocabulary

Autumn	The time of year between September and November. Many leaves fall off the trees.
Spring	The time of year between March and May. This is when we see signs of new growth.
Summer	The hottest season in the UK. It happens between June and August.
Winter	The coldest season in the UK. We usually have snow in this season.
deciduous	Deciduous trees are trees that shed their leaves once a year, usually during the season of autumn.
evergreen	Trees that keep their leaves all year round.
weather	Weather is what the sky and the air outside are like, such as cold and cloudy.
seasons	A year has four seasons.
weather sign	These are signs used by to help us understand more about our daily weather.

Important Bits

- I can identify seasonal and daily weather patterns in the United Kingdom.
- I can identify and name some deciduous and evergreen trees.
- I can observe changes across the four season.
- I can describe weather associated with the seasons.

Sticky Knowledge about the seasons

- In the UK we have four seasons: spring, summer, autumn and winter. Summer is the hottest season and winter the coldest.
- Seasons change throughout the year because of the way the Earth travels around the Sun.
- In summer there is the longest day of the year and in winter there is the shortest day of the year.
- In Autumn deciduous trees shed their leaves.

Prior learning

- Plants change and some animals hibernate with the seasons.
- In Springtime plants begin to grow again.
- Daily weather through the seasons.